

AGES RESEARCH SEMINARS SEMESTER 1, 2011 - 12

Week 2, Tuesday 4th October : Dr Mike McCarthy (Division of AGES).
Carlisle: The Emergence of a Medieval Town.

Week 3, Tuesday 11th October: Dr Colin Richards (University of Manchester)
"Wrapping up ancestral power on Rapa Nui (Easter Island)".

Week 4, Tuesday 18th October 2011: Dr Katharina Becker, (AGES).
After the Celts: The new Irish Iron Age

Week 5, Tuesday 25th October 2011: Dr Peter Jordan, (University of Aberdeen).
Hunter-Gatherers and Ceramic Innovation in Northern Eurasia.

Week 6, Tuesday 1st November 2011: Dr Oliver Craig (University of York).
"Palaeodietary reconstruction at several Imperial Roman ports in Italy: Prehistorians Beware!"

Week 7, Tuesday 8th November 2011: Dr Andrew 'Bone' Jones (York Archaeological Trust).
An unusual Late Bronze Age barrow excavation and research project at Blansby Park on the North Yorkshire Moors: 1960-2011.

Week 8, Tuesday 15th November 2011: Nick Card (Orkney College UHI)
Heart of Neolithic Orkney World Heritage Site - Recent Research

Week 9, Tuesday 22nd November 2011: Prof Dominic Powlesland (West Heslerton Project).
Where do we go from here? The Landscape Archaeology of the Vale of Pickering ~ 33 years research and still so much to do...

Week 10, Tuesday 29th November 2011: Dr Tim Williams (Institute of Archaeology, University College London).
Mapping the Silk Roads: shifting systems of power and patronage.

Week 11, Tuesday 6th December 2011: Jane Kenney, (Gwynedd Archaeological Trust)
Recent work on the Neolithic of North Wales.

All lectures will be held at the University of Bradford, Phoenix Building (SW), Room SA0.08 at 5.15pm

Further details may be obtained from Alex Gibson, Division of Ages, University of Bradford, BD7 1DP
01274 235385
a.m.gibson1@bradford.ac.uk