

UPPER WHARFEDALE HERITAGE GROUP
Mill visit on Thursday 4th September 2025

Tour start 10.30 am.

Visit to Queen Street Mill Textile Museum Burnley.

Entry charge £8

Queen Street Mills is the only surviving example of a Victorian steam-powered mill. Join us for a private guided tour of this jewel of Britain's industrial heritage.

For this trip: In order that we can advise the museum of likely numbers and to facilitate car sharing we ask that you register your interest by emailing uwhg.enquiries@gmail.com by 28 August, providing contact details and the number of people planning to come.

Full joining details will be circulated nearer the time.

We are aiming to start the tour at 10.30 am and finish in time for lunch at the museum café.
