An Archaeology of Aunt Sally

A talk by Dr David Johnson

Please note the new venue:

Craven Arts House, Otley Street, Skipton at 7.30pm

"Over the decades various sites and features have been investigated archaeologically for which assumptions were made and repeated time and again slowly becoming 'fact' even though the original assumptions have been discredited or overtaken by new research. This presentation reassesses several such sites across the Dales which can be seen as an 'Aunt Sally' - something which invites criticism or refutation."
